THE BATTLE OF BALLOTS TO BE FOUGHT TODAY

State, Congressional
And County Officers
Will be Elected.

Democrats Confident of Winning by Large Majority Over the Republican Hosts—The Republicans Say They
Will Carry Congressional District and
Are Hopeful of Having Majority in Legislature—County Is Conceded to
the Democrats by 800 Majority.

Today the officers for Congressional,
State and County offices will be chosen
and from sunrise to sunset the battle
of ballots will be fought. The Democrats are confident of winning by an increased majority, while the Republicans
say they will carry the Congressional district and will have a working majority in the State Legislature. The county is conceded to be Democratic by a majority of 800.

The voting will begin at sunrise and will continue until sunset, after which there will be no voting. The polling places in and around Greensboro are as follows: Precinct No. 1, Treasurer's office, court house; precinct No. 2, Adams & Hunt's plumbing shop on West Washington street; precinct No. 3, T. J. Murphy's office on East Market street; precinct No. 4, Eagle Hose Company hall,
South Davis street; North Gilmer, Proximity Store; South Morehead, Fields' Store, Spring Garden street. The workers for each party will be quite active in the city and throughout the day the
early voters will be sought out and carried to the polls.

The Democrats are estimating the Democratic majority in the county at
from 1200 to 2,000, many believing the latter figures to be correct. In the district it is believed that Major Stedman's
majority will exceed 2,000, while some predict a majority of 3,000. Mr. Cooke, Major Stedman's manager, stated last night that he thought the Democratic majority would be around 2,700. The Republican leaders are claiming the district by a majority of 200, but a number of prominent Republicans are conceding Major Stedman's election by a majority of 500. In the judicial district
it is conceded that Mr. S. M. Gattis will be elected, the majority being estimated
at from 500 to 3,000.

The returns from the county, State
and nation will be received in the county court house tonight by the Democrats of the county. The returns will also be received at Republican headquarters.
The interest in the election in New York, Ohio, and other close states is almost as intense as in the election here
and in some cases it is more so. If those states go Democratic there is a strong possibility that the next Congress
will be Democratic.

The full Democratic ticket was printed
in Sunday's Telegram and voters are asked to scan their tickets before voting. It will be noted that both the Democratic and Republican candidate for State Auditor is named Wood. The Democratic candidate is William P.
Wood, while the Republican candidate is
J. Q. A. Wood. Voters should also scan
the initials of these candidates so as to prevent getting them confused.

Bring Your Poll Tax Receipts.
It will be a saving of time in the voting today if the voters will take their
poll tax receipts for 1909 with them
showing that they paid their poll tax
prior to May 1, 1910. Otherwise it will be necessary to take an oath showing
that the tax requirements have been complied with.

The following sections of the State
Election law have been handed The Telegram for publication: Section 3388.
Bribery of Voters—If any person shall
at any time before or after an election,
give or promise to give any money, property, or reward to any elector in order
to secure his vote, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor; and any person who shall receive or agree to receive any such
bribe shall also be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Section 3389. Liquor, giving away or selling at—If any person shall give away
or shall sell any intoxicating liquor; except for medical purposes and upon the

prescription of a practicing physician, at
any place within five miles of the polling place, at any time within twelve hours next preceding or succeeding any public election, whether general, local or
municipal, or during the holding thereof,
he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and
fined not less than $100 nor more than $1,000.

IN HONOR OF MISS RIDGE

Mrs. Fred Sparger Hostess At Delightful
Affair Yesterday Afternoon.

Mrs. Fred Sparger gave a shower yesterday afternoon from 3:30 to 6 o'clock
at the home of her mother, Mrs. Tatum,
on East Market street, in honor of Miss Etha Ridge, who is to be married to Mr.
C. Wistar Stockard on Wednesday, Nov.
16.

The parlor and sitting room were beautifully decorated with white and yellow chrysanthemums.

The guests were met at the door by Mrs. Sparger, who presented to each a beautiful tally card on which was hand-
painted the picture of a bride.

The feature of the afternoon was "broken hearts." After several games
the guests were ushered into the dining room.

The color scheme in the dining room
was effected with yellow chrysanthemums and ferns. The centerpiece for the table was a bed of white chrysanthem-
ums. Suspended from the chandelier
was a big hoop from which hung yellow
chrysanthemums, tied with white ribbon.

Each guest was asked to take one of the flowers. This caused the hoop to slip,
disclosing a collection of beautiful presents for the bride-to-be. Miss Ridge
was called on to open the presents to the
admiring eyes of all present.

Mesdames Tatum and Ridge served a delicious salad course.

The guests were Mesdames John Kleemeier, Edwin Nowell, Dale Star-
buck, Sidney Peters, G. H. Miles, Elmer
Leak, C. I. Carlsen, C. T. Lipscomb,
Wade Stockard, L. J. Thompson, Elmo
Sellars, D. V. McLeod, R. C. Ridge;
Misses Etha Ridge, Marquette Halladay,
Allie Vickory, Bessie Grissom, Price
Farish, Lucy Hopkins, Alice Callum, Bet-
tie Aiken Land, Mabel Ridge, Louise Goggins, of Newberry, S. C.

REFUTES ROOSEVELT THEORY

High Costs Not Due To World-Wide
Causes, Says Yale Dean.

Stamford, Conn., Nov. 6.—Henry Wade
Rogers, dean of the Yale Law School,
said in a political speech here last night,
that Colonel Roosevelt was wrong in his Buffalo speech when he said the high cost of living was due to world-wide
causes, operating in the United States
just as they do in other countries of the world.

Mr. Rogers quoted from the report of a committee appointed by the Massachusetts Legislature and just published
to refute Colonel Roosevelt. The report states that while the cost of living has increased 60 per cent, on many articles of food in the United States, yet
in England, a country with no tariff,
as it has not gone up half as much.

"If the causes which have produced
this high cost of living operated the
same throughout the world, why is it
in England, where they haven't a high
tariff, the cost of living has only gone
up one-half what it has in the United States?" he asked. "It is not true," said
Mr. Rogers. "I won't say that he knows
it is not true, but it is not true."

FOUNDED THE PASTOR.

Forest Avenue Church Members Celebrate Anniversary of Rev. Mr. Kendrick's Pastorate.

Last night a number of the members
of Forest Avenue Baptist church gathered at the home of their pastor, Rev. R.
G. Kendrick and gave him a severe pounding in celebration of the first anniversary of his pastorate. A large number of articles for the pantry were brought in and presented by Mr. J. E.
Alderman, superintendent of the Sunday school. Rev. Mr. Kendrick responded, thanking his congregation for the kindly
manner in which the occasion had been celebrated.

Sunday Rev. Mr. Kendrick preached
his anniversary sermon on "Consecration," being heard by a large audience.
The Sunday school was also largely attended, there being about 250 present.
The church is in a flourishing condition
and the second year of Mr. Kendrick's pastorate begins auspiciously.

May Establish Ice Cream Factory.

Mr. John A. Hood, of Charlotte, representing Hand Bros., was here yesterday
looking into the matter of locating an ice cream factory in the city. Hand Bros. do an extensive ice cream manufacturing business in Charlotte.

Major Chas. M. Stedman, who will today be elected as Congressman from the Fifth Congressional District.

MAJ. STEDMAN GIVEN OVATION

Enthusiastically Received Last Night.

Made Telling Speech in Court House Before Crowded House Last Night—Told
How the Tariff Law Had Increased the Cost of Living—Pointed Out the Evils
of Such Unjust Legislation—Progress
in State Reviewed.

With the Gibsonville band playing Dixie Maj. Chas. M. Stedman entered
the court house last night to be greeted by a cheering audience. The room was crowded and many stood in the aisles.
The ovation lasted for fully two minutes, practically every person present
participating. It was the most enthusiastic reception accorded any political speaker in Greensboro during the entire campaign.

Major Stedman spoke for a little more than an hour and he dealt principally
with the tariff question, sidestepping
only long enough to pay his respects to
the record of the Republican party in the State and to the present leaders.
The evils of such unjust legislation as
the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill were brought out in a convincing manner, the speaker showing conclusively that the law was for the benefit of the wealthy
and that it oppressed the masses.

Mr. A. M. Seales introduced Major Stedman. He said that at times one is called upon to vote for a man whom he does not know because that man is a Democrat and stands for the principles
one holds dear and at other times one
votes for a man because he is a Democrat and the choice of the majority of the party, when otherwise he would prefer some other man. But, he continued,
in this case it is different. We are going to vote for a man because we want
to, because we know him and because we love him. He referred to the fact that Major Stedman had been defeated
in battle and in the political arena, but
each time he came up from his defeat stronger and grander than ever. It is such men that we admire and love, he said. He then presented Major Stedman as the next Congressman from the Imperial Fifth district. Major Stedman
was liberally applauded as he arose.

Major Stedman stated that he brought
glad tidings from all parts of the district; that everywhere he had been he had received the gratifying news that the Democracy of the district was united as never before. He predicted the greatest victory the party had ever achieved, not only in the State but in many other states. Let every man do his part and when the sun sets tomorrow night a severe reproof will have been administered to the party that stands for protection to the wealthy
at the expense of the masses, he said.

Major Stedman said he was not there
to denounce anyone, that he did not like
to denounce anyone and would not do so unless it became his duty. He paid his respects to Butler, who he declared had made an issue of himself. The denounce-

ment Butler had received at the hands
of prominent Republicans in the state
made it entirely unnecessary for a Democrat to add anything against the man.
Roosevelt was classed as a National
fakir, while Butler was a State fakir.
One had destroyed the Republican party
nationally, while the other had destroyed
the party in this State. He felt like apologizing to decent Republicans for calling Butler a Republican, he said.

Taking up the tariff Major Stedman
said that Morehead, Butler, Blair, Holton, Bynum, Settle and Sherman were
the only Republicans he knew of who
said the present tariff law was all right.
Taft and "Teddy" had both said it was in need of a readjustment. The tariff
was the only issue in this campaign, he said, because it affects the people as no
other thing does. He pointed out that it is really an unequal law, favoring the wealthy and oppressing the masses of the people. Living has increased 60 per cent, in the last 10 years, he said, and
barring the increase in farm products,
which are governed by the law of supply and demand, the tariff is responsible for this increase. He pointed out that the tariff has increased the prices on articles that must be purchased by the
masses of the people, while the increase
on articles used by only the wealthy has not been so great and in many instances
it has been lessened. For instance on diamonds valued at $1,000 the duty is
not more than half what it is on sugar,
valued at the same figure. The latter is a necessity, while the former is a luxury. And so on through the entire list of articles used by the masses. When we have extremes of wealth and poverty
the country cannot maintain its liberty,
he said, pointing to England as an example. There the government is in the hands of the wealthy and the masses
are bowed in subjection to their rule.
This was an evil to be avoided in this country, he said.

Major Stedman turned his attention to State matters and pointed out that the affairs had been wisely administered by Democratic officers. As to extravagance
he told where the money had been spent
and said that it was not the amount spent, but how it was spent. He spoke of the records of the Republican administrations in the State and said the reason the Republicans wanted the Democrats to have young men for candidates
was because they did not want their past records brought up; that they knew
the older men could never forget the shame Republican administrations had brought on the State, mentioning especially the Russell administration.

With the Laboring People.

Major Stedman was approached on yesterday by Mr. J. J. W. Harris, representative of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and Enginemen, Brotherhood of Railway Conductors and Railway Trainmen, who asked him to state
his position upon certain matters and
sign a paper which they presented, showing how he stood. Major Stedman signed the paper, as requested, answering
all the questions in the affirmative
which was very gratifying to the brother-hoods.

County Commissioners.

The County Commissioners were in regular monthly session yesterday. The entire day was consumed in auditing accounts and approving bills. The commissioners adjourned until Wednesday when road matters will be considered. A jury
for the December term of court will be drawn.

YESTERDAY IN MUNICIPAL COURT

Several Cases Were Disposed of Before Judge Eure—Several Retailers In Court—An Assault Case and a Larceny Case.

The session of Municipal court yesterday morning was somewhat longer than usual, there being a number of cases on the docket awaiting disposal. There were several retailing cases, but the defendant were acquitted or a nol pros was taken in the majority of the cases. However, two retailers were found guilty
and given sentences.

Joe Hooper was charged with retailing in two cases. He was found guilty
and a sentence of 90 days on the roads
was imposed, the defendant being allowed to pay a fine of $50 and costs in lieu of the road sentence. He at first gave notice of appeal, but later paid the fine.

Bob Patter was convicted on the charge of retailing and sentenced to eight months on the roads. Fletcher Evans
was acquitted of the charge of retailing.
There were three cases against Walter Rankin, charging retailing, but two cases
were not pressed, while the defendant
was found not guilty in the other.

Sal Pritchett was charged with assaulting Bettie Martin with a bottle.
She was found guilty and a fine of $10
and costs was imposed.

The Southern Railway was fined $5
and costs for blocking South Elm street
for a longer time than prescribed by law.

Tom Galloway was convicted on the charge of stealing a watch and Judge
Eure gave him a six months' sentence
on the roads.

Carry Johnson was charged with obtaining $2 under false pretense. She was found guilty and judgment was suspended during her good behavior on payment of $2 and costs.

SAYS MRS. CRIPPEN WAS NOT MURDERED

Declares She Was Seen Alive in Chicago
and Seeks Stay for the Convicted Dentist.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 7.—Francis Tracy Tobin, a prominent attorney of this city, left for Washington, D. C.,
last night to demand that the State Department intervene to save Dr. Harvey Hawley Crippen from death on the gallows in England tomorrow morning
on the ground that Mrs. Belle Elmore Crippen is living. He will request that the Secretary of State cable at once to the American Ambassador asking that the latter petition the Home Secretary
of Great Britain to order a stay of execution until Mrs. Crippen can be produced in the flesh.

"Belle Elmore still lives," said Mr. Tobin tonight. "When she is found it will be in the vicinity of Chicago, where she is in hiding. I have letters in my possession from persons who know her and
who have seen her since she is said to have been murdered by her husband and
her body buried in his London home.
These persons not only have seen her,
but have spoken to her, and in every instance she has not denied her identity."

"She first was seen in San Francisco.
Later she was seen in Chicago and after
that she was seen and spoken to in several cities south and east of Chicago. I am of the firm opinion that she is in hiding to carry out the most consummate
plan of revenge in the annals of crime."

THOMAS DEWEY PARDONED

Defaulting Bank Cashier Gets Freedom
—Sentence Would Have Expired In December.

Raleigh, Nov. 7.—Governor Kitchin tonight pardoned Thomas W. Dewey from the penitentiary, where he was serving
a six years' sentence for embezzlement
while cashier of the New Bern bank.

Dewey left this afternoon going to Goldsboro, his aged mother there being very ill. His sentence would have expired on December 7, so the pardon relieves him of only thirty days' service.
Dewey is a member of a prominent family. His defalcations wrecked the bank
with which he was connected and stirred
a widespread sensation.

Denton—Wilkerson.

Mr. James M. Denton, of this city,
and Miss Lillian Wilkerson, of Lynchburg, were married Sunday afternoon at 3:30 at the residence of Squire G. T.
Glascocok on Asheboro street, Squire Glascocok officiating. The bride had been in this city visiting for several months.
Both she and the groom were formerly from New Jersey.

THE GOVERNOR'S CAMPAIGNING

Wound up Last Night
at Durham.

Several Non-Political Speeches to Make
Before He Settles Down To His Re-
tine Work—Insurance Department
Looking Into the Status of the Royal Arcanum Under Its Readjusted Management—A New Railroad Company Chartered.

Raleigh, Nov. 7.—Governor Kitchin
will be in the executive office again Friday to spend some time clearing up an accumulation of matters brought about
by his campaigning the past few weeks.
His final campaign speech was at Durham tonight. He is to be at Durham
Wednesday to assist in the inauguration
of Dr. Few as president of Trinity College. He is scheduled for Henderson Thursday to deliver the address for the unveiling of a Confederate monument.

The work of examining the home office
of the Royal Arcanum in Boston has just been completed by representatives
of the State insurance departments of North Carolina, Connecticut and Minnesota, this being done to ascertain just
what developments there are in the financial status of the order since the
readjustment of the insurance system
some years ago. North Carolina was represented by Actuary R. B. Koit and Deputy Insurance Commissioner S. W.
Wade. Commissioner Young says that it will be a week or so yet before there
will be any official announcement made.

J. E. Hampton has been arrested here
for the authorities of Bristol, Tenn.,
where he is wanted for seduction under promise of marriage. He was carried back to Bristol this morning by a Virginia officer who came for him.

The Madison county Railroad Co., capital $50,000 was chartered today for building and operating a railroad from Stackhouse to Allenstand, ten miles, in Madison county entirely. W. N. Garrett, of Hot Springs, is one of the principal incorporators.

The Wake Superior Court, in the midst of a three weeks term, took holiday today and will not meet tomorrow
on account of the election. Sessions will be resumed Wednesday and the business of the court wound up by Saturday, this being the third and last week of the court. Judge C. M. Cook
is presiding and he has gone to his home
in Louisville to vote. He is on the judicial ticket for reelection.

Mr. Parker To Wed.

The following invitations have been issued:

"Mrs. John Lauren Maffitt requests
the honor of your presence at the marriage of her daughter, Maria Burgwin,
to Mr. John Johnston Parker on Wednesday evening, November the twenty-
third, at six o'clock, 323 South Fourth street, Wilmington, North Carolina."

Mr. Parker has many friends in this city, where he was engaged in the practice of law for a time, who will be interested in the above.

County Democratic Candidates Wind Up Their Campaign.

The Democratic county candidates
spoke last night in High Point to a crowd of several hundred people. They expect to win out in today's election by a majority of fifteen hundred. This is larger than the majority of two years
ago, but the new voters, registering for this time for this election, were largely Democratic.

New Manager For Askin & Marine.

Mr. L. Carvolos, manager of Askin &
Marine's clothing store here for the last
two years, left last night for Augusta,
where he will open a clothing store for himself. He is succeeded by Mr. Nolen,
of Kansas City, who with his family,
has arrived in the city. Mr. Carvolos
has made a popular and successful manager for Askin & Marine. By his genial manners and kindly disposition he has
many friends who regret that he is to leave the city.

Y. M. C. A. Headquarters.

The headquarters of the Young Men's Christian Association were moved yesterday from the room in the Gravel
Hotel building to a temporary
erection on the Y. M. C. A. lot, corner
Greene and Sycamore street.

HOW CHRONIC COUGHS

Are Being Cured by Vinol—An Account of One Case.

New Haven, Conn.—"I was troubled with a most persistent chronic cough for a long time and had tried so many remedies and prescriptions without benefit that I was discouraged. I was persuaded by my friends to try Vinol. I must say that I had little confidence, but I made up my mind to give it a fair trial. Before I finished my first bottle of Vinol I commenced to notice an improvement in my general condition. After taking the second bottle, my cough left me, and I must say I never felt better in my life—all due to the use of Vinol. I can also recommend Vinol to anyone in a run down condition as the best possible remedy." (Name furnished on request.)

It is the combined action of the medicinal elements of the cods' livers aided by the blood-making and strength-creating properties of tonic iron which makes Vinol so efficient in curing chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis—at the same time building up the weakened, run-down system. Vinol contains no oil and tastes good.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. Farise-Blatz Drug Co., Greensboro, N. C.

Farms and Town Lots For Sale.

Pursuant to an award made in the case of J. A. Hardin and his wife, Susan M. Hardin, vs. J. Henry Phipps, the undersigned will, on the 21st day of November, 1910, at 12 o'clock m., sell to the last and highest bidder, by public auction, in front of the County Court House door in Greensboro, North Carolina, the following lands:

(1) An undivided one-half in about three (3) acres of land and a mill thereon, known as the Finley Shaw or S. W. Phipps mill.

(2) The S. W. Phipps home-place (where he died) containing approximately one hundred and ninety (190) acres, adjoining the W. A. Job place on the southwest, the Frank Thom place on the north, and Allen Hardin on the extreme west, and others.

(3) Another place owned by S. W. Phipps at the time of his death, purchased by him from his father, S. W. Phipps, and adjoining the tract above described, and Robt. Starr on the north, Mrs. Jessie Phipps on the east and on the south and west by the lands of the W. H. Phipps heirs, and containing approximately one hundred and sixty (160) acres.

All the above lands lie in Clay Township, Guilford county, and the two tracts last above described are north of and within about one-half mile of the main road leading from Greensboro to Klineville, and about an equal distance from and south of a new road going in a southeasterly direction from Greensboro, passing through the farm of John Jones, Esq., and others.

Tracts Nos. 2 and 3 will be first sold separately; then offered together, with the right in the undersigned to close the sale in the manner that brings the most money.

(4) A lot lying on the east side of Pearson street in the City of Greensboro, and bounded by the lands of Mrs. Susan M. Hardin on the south, on the north by the lot of Chas. Wooten, fronting 80 feet on Pearson street, and extending back east 150 feet.

Terms of Sale—One-third cash, one-third in one year and one-third in two years, with interest on deferred payments from date of sale till paid, at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually; title retained till all the purchase money is paid, with the right in the purchaser to pay his bid in cash without discount.

This sale is not open to an advanced bid, but is final.

This October 18th, 1910.

A NIGHT IN KOREA.

The Terrifying Experience of One at a Native Funeral.

The mountain north of Seoul is crossed by Peking Pass. We had overtaken the relay chair coolies in the afternoon, but the journey had been long and trying on all, and the men, completely exhausted, swayed and reeled from one side of the path to the other under their heavy burden. I insisted that they should rest.

Grateful for an opportunity to rest, my cramped limbs, I scrambled from the chair, then stood transfixed with fear and terror. Coming over the crest of the mountain were hundreds of torches and lanterns. Faintly, from far away, came strange wild voices, shouting and screaming, louder, louder, swelling the weird, fantastic noise, and drums, bells and gongs could be heard.

Turning to the men, I cried: "What is this?" and pointed to the strange thing now descending quickly toward us. The men in an excited way talked all together. I could see that it was something very unusual, and they seemed to be very much frightened. My Christian boy, Ke Tai, came to me to keep me from being alarmed. He carefully explained, but using many words I had never heard before. I listened, more mystified than ever; whether it were a mob or an uprising I did not know. He saw that I did not understand, and so at great length and with many more strange words not in my vocabulary, he tried to enlighten my bewildered mind.

Nearer came the menacing mob, and above the clanging of brass, the yelling and wailing arose in an unearthly roar. Alone, at midnight, on the dark mountain pass, I stood and faced—what? I knew not, but certainly something terrifying and awful. My heart was filled with horror and a strange, unutterable longing for my homeland and mother swept over my heart. Had my time come to go? It might be indeed so.

With faltering voice I insisted again: "Can't you tell me in a few words what it is? I will not fear." This time, the boy understood what it was that I needed, and made the reply:

"Yes; it is a nobleman who has departed from this world." It was a great funeral, nothing more. Midnight is the favorite time for the procession to the grave. The darkness will help to keep away the evil spirits, so they think; the bells and drums are used also to frighten away the malign demons by the noise.

Not Sorry for Blunder.

"If my friend hadn't blundered in thinking I was a doomed victim of consumption, I might not be alive now," writes D. T. Sanders, of Harrodsburg, Ky., "but for years they saw every attempt to cure a lung-racking cough, fail. At last I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. The effect was wonderful. It soon stopped the cough and I am now in better health than I have had for years. This wonderful life-saver is an unrivaled remedy for coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, croup, hemorrhages, whooping cough or weak lungs. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Call Again.

A tramp who seemed to be in a starving condition asked for food at the kitchen of a home in California.

"You like fish?" asked the Chicaneese cook.

"Sure," replied the tramp eagerly.

"All right, come around Friday." Everybody's.

Saves an Iowa Man's Life.

The very grave seemed to yawn before Robert Madsen, of West Burlington, Iowa, when, after seven weeks in the hospital, four of the best physicians gave him up. Then was shown the marvelous curative power of Electric Bitters. For, after eight months of frightful suffering from liver trouble and yellow jaundice, getting no help from other remedies or doctors, five bottles of this matchless medicine completely cured him. Its positively guaranteed for Stomach, Liver or Kidney troubles and never disappoints. Only 50 c. at Farise-Klut Drug Co.

HOUSEKEEPERS WASTEFUL.

"Only Time We Think of Supply is When It is Limited," Says Speaker. Phoebe Dwight in the Boston Traveler.

"The housekeepers must learn not to waste the by-products. That is a lesson the manufacturers are teaching us. They use every thing, heated air and all. Housewives should. Old-fashioned soap-making is an example. Everyone's grandmother used to make her own soap. I do not say that women nowadays should do the same, for many of them in that space of time could earn more than they could save by making. But, nevertheless, the fat that might be refined into soap is wasted. Think of the soaps and oils that could be made from that space of time could earn more than the fat thrown away yearly. I feel that there is a moral side to it.

"There is the matter of the diet," went on Miss Stern, smiling at her own earnestness. "If a person is sick or consumptive or delicate, a diet is arranged for him. Just so much is cooked, and the patient is expected to eat it all. But if a person is well a diet is thought unnecessary. Let him eat all he wants. The amount varies. Hence the waste.

"It seems to me the economical housewife should plan her meals in relation to the family consumption so that just the right amount would be prepared and then there would be no waste, no left-overs. A very excellent cook and a practical woman once said to me that she could never afford to have left-overs because it required a genius to make them palatable."

"Do you think that there is waste only in the culinary department?" I asked.

"Indeed, no," replied Miss Stern. "It is just as apparent in dress. I suppose that it is caused largely by the instability of fashion. The rich keep abreast of the constant changes and the less rich follow as closely as they can. People have grown to think that it is easier to buy a new garment than to mend an old one. Fashion encourages these ideas. There is little of what the Germans call the 'up-keep' in connection with the American wardrobe.

"Americans are so prosperous that they are free-handed. There is never any economy with us unless it is forced. The coal famine was an excellent illustration of that. The only time that we think of the supply is when it is limited. But I am old-fashioned enough to believe that a 'penny saved is a penny earned'."

Both Speedy and Effective.

This indicates the action of Foley Kidney Pills as S. Parsons, Battle Creek, Mich., illustrates: "I have been afflicted with a severe case of kidney and bladder trouble for which I found no relief until I used Foley Kidney Pills. These cured me entirely of all my ailments. I was troubled with backaches and severe shooting pains with annoying urinary irregularities. The steady use of Foley Kidney Pills rid me entirely of all my former troubles. They have my highest recommendation." Howard Gardner.

One Sure Test.

After Halloween—Maud—Were any of the tricks you tried last night successful?

Ethel—Yes; I really found out whom I am to marry.

"Say!" exclaimed the indignant customer, "this slot machine won't work for a cent." "Of course not," replied the cigar store man. "Try a nickel."

Mamma, use Mother's Joy for Croup and Pneumonia, it never fails. Gardner sells it.

A Good Imitation.

Good Results Always Follow.

Merely An Ornament.

"How is it that the quail on your bill of are is always struck off?" "That's just a fancy touch," explained the beany waiter. "We never had a quail in the joint."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

People Who Work Indoors With Their Hands

Seamstresses, watch-makers, artists, draughtsmen, and many others, cannot properly handle their tools with cold, stiff hands. Many a lost hour or two on cold winter mornings results from the delayed heat of furnace or stove.

The Perfection Oil Heater in a few minutes gives the temperature that assures the worker warm hands and pliable muscles. The

SMOKELESS
OIL HEATER
Absolutely smokeless and odorless

quickly gives heat, and with one filling of the font burns steadily for nine hours, without smoke or smell. Has automatic-locking flame spreader which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so the wick can be quickly cleaned.

It has a damper-top and a cool handle. Indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font. The filler-cap does not need to be screwed down; it is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain, and cannot get lost. The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and consequently, it can always be easily unscrewed in an instant for reworking. The Perfection is finished in japan or nickel, is strong, durable, well-made, built for service, and yet light and ornamental.

Our "Terry Special" grade at $5.00 equals the best custom, bench-made shoe.

You don't know it, but every manufacturer of shoes knows that he can play up any one feature he cares to in producing a shoe to sell. He can make it stylish at the expense of wear and comfort, or comfortable by cutting into style and wear, or he can turn out a shoe so heavy and stocky it will never wear out—but there will be no semblance of style left and the foot forced to wear it would be in prison. He also knows that a nicely balanced combination of these three shoe virtues is about the hardest problem in shoe making.

Mr. Franklin at the Bar.
Among the state papers for the year 1536 may be read a letter from John Bartolet to Henry VIII's minister, Thomas Cromwell, stating that in accordance with the recent act the mayor and aldermen had chosen Mr. Pryseley to attend the English parliament as the representative of Calais and that he had made certain arrangements about his passage into England.
One Thomas Boyd was elected as his colleague, and Calais continued to send M. P.'s to Westminster until, in the reign of Mary, we lost the stronghold we had held for over two centuries. This is the only instance in England's history of anything like colonial representation at Westminster unless indeed we reckon one or two exceptional occasions when colonial grievances have been voiced at the bar of the house of commons, as they were so brilliantly by Benjamin Franklin, when Burke said the scene reminded him of "a master examined by a parcel of schoolboys."—London News.

Learn to Laugh.
Laughter is the best of all tonics. Bacilli are humorless folk and hate the physical constitution that is always vibrating with the shocks of fun. This is a truism, but serviceable and likewise worth repeating are the platitudes on laughter as the great aseptic of the soul. It is true there are different kinds of laughter, and some of them need formaldehyde. There is a kind, too, that needs bicarbonate of soda as an antidote—another that calls for lithia tablets. But the right sort of laughter was stolen from the gods by some wiser Prometheus, and nothing can prevail against it. In America there is plenty of laughter, good, bad and indifferent, but mostly good, and much that is very good. It is one of our greatest national resources. May we conserve it all ways. A people that laugh kindly and often have not much to fear; a people that laugh wisely, nothing.—Chicago Tribune.

Fanny Dickens.
Fanny, the sister of Charles Dickens, was one of the first students entered at the old Royal Academy of Music when it opened its doors at Tenterden street in 1823, and at that time the students lived at the academy, only going home for the week end. "Every Sunday," Dickens told Forster, "I was at the academy at 9 o'clock in the morning to fetch her (Fanny), and we walked back there together at night." And the Sunday itself the two spent in the Marshalsea prison, where their father and mother then resided, owing to Mr. Dickens having "failed to propitiate his creditors." While her father was still in prison Fanny won a prize at the academy, and the future novelist, then engaged in pasting labels on blacking pots at 7 shillings a week, was present to see her receive it.—Westminster Gazette.

Twain and the Rivermen.
Mark Twain once told to a party of friends the following story on himself. On one occasion when he started on a trip down the Mississippi river on a flatboat he was advised never to answer the questions asked by rivermen on other boats and never to bandy words with them, as he would be sure always to come out second best. He followed the advice religiously for a time, but one day he thought he saw a chance to get the better of a river man who called out:
"Hey, thar, what yer loaded with?"
"Jackasses," yelled back Twain.
"That's what I reckoned seem' as how they let their biggest donkey hev their run of the deck," came back Twain made a dive below as all the rivermen in the neighborhood set up a derisive laugh at his expense.

"Niggering" Logs.
The question was asked me as a native of Maine if I could find out what "niggering" logs meant in the statement "We niggered the logs." I found that "nigger" logs was to save the labor of chopping them into lengths by piling them up crossed at points where it was desired to separate them. By building fires under these crossings several logs could be burned into sections at once. Because "a nigger" was supposed to be lazy this lazy man's way of cutting logs into lengths was, naturally enough, called "niggering."—Appleton Morgan in New Shakespeareana.

The Inexpensive Policeman.
Mr. Walter Seymour, who writes "Ups and Downs of a Wandering Life," had Thorold Rogers as a tutor while at Oxford. Rogers was as amusing as he was heterodox. "I remember asking him one day, 'Mr. Rogers, what do you consider the origin of the idea of the devil?' 'Cheapest policeman they could find!'"

Tuesday Bargain Day!

Double Trading Stamps Until Noon.

For the time being we're going to discontinue our bargain basement, going to close it up in order to get our New Toy Department and Holiday Bazaar ready for Early Christmas Shopping. Before doing so, however, we're going to make sensationally low prices sell every dollar's worth of basement merchandise. The entire basement salesroom will be reopened and will be devoted to the largest and newest Toy Department, dolls, books, games, etc., in Greensboro, together with typical Holiday Sections of special interest to Christmas shoppers. It takes time to do new and big things right. Christmas is only seven weeks away. We must turn the basement salesroom over to the carpenters, fixture builders and wonder workers who are to convert this floor into a veritable fairyland where the juvenile world can revel in the wonderful things Santa Claus has prepared for them.

A great bargain feast awaits you in the basement Tuesday. The following is only a few of the good things prepared for Tuesday's selling:

It's all over but the shouting and it's a safe bet that both sides will find something to shout over.

The Colonel has spoken in a number of close states, and if they go Republican he will say that he did it. Unless he gets a rebuke in this election, the country is doomed to hear a great deal more of him.

You might ask Mr. Morehead whether or not he thinks the present campaign has been conducted upon a very high plane.—Durham Herald.

No, we mightn't; for he has trouble enough as it is.

With a large number of North Carolinians there is, we venture to say, a well defined desire that Marion Butler will get his and likewise Theodore Roosevelt his as a result of today's voting.

Mr. Baldwin, the Democratic candidate for Governor of Connecticut, is going to sue Col. Roosevelt for slander, the ex-President having indulged in one of his vicious onslaughts on him. As Mr. Baldwin is a judge, he probably has good ground to sue or he wouldn't do it.

The Republicans in this county are making frantic efforts to get Democrats to "scratch" this or that Democratic candidate. But the game won't work. The Democratic ticket is all from top to bottom and there can be no excuse to scratch any one on it.

We understand that the agitation about the dumping of the city's trash will likely eventuate in some sort of incinerating plant being improvised. Agitation, which properly handled is after all nothing but advertising, always gets results. We never could see how it was possible to dump all the city's trash without putting it somewhere when sooner or later it would be objectionable to some body.

The strangest thing in the whole campaign was the criticism by the Republicans of the Democrats for not passing a trust bill with teeth. The Republicans in the last Legislature were practically unanimous against any sort of a trust bill that had the merest suspicion of teeth. They actually didn't want a bill that could "gum it." Hence it is preposterous for them to mention Democratic shortcomings in this respect. To be consistent and to stick to their record of friendship to the "special interests," they should have criticised the Democrats for passing any sort of a trust bill.

The State Board of Health is out again in a bulletin on Mr. Mosquito. (If the people would practice what the Board of Health preaches, there would be an end of disease in North Carolina.) The latest bulletin gives further proof that Mr. Mosquito spreads malaria and concludes with these words:

We have not exhausted, by any means, the examples of the effect of mosquito extermination on the prevalence of malaria, but in view of the fact that not a single example of mosquito extermination without malaria reduction can be cited, we consider it unnecessary to occupy the reader's time further with superabundance of evidence.

The Board of Health has given abundant evidence. The jury is just obliged to find the mosquito guilty of the charge. Nothing remains but for the mosquito to be sentenced to final and complete banishment. Down with the mosquito.

Dr. J. J. Mott, the Iron Duke of Republican politics, says:

There is no man in North Carolina who feels greater interest in this State campaign than I do. I recognize the fact the strongest collective force in accomplishing any Republican success is Mr. Butler and the following he had when they overthrew the Democratic party in the heyday of its power. This body of men constitutes the old guard in any opposition to the Democratic party in the State, and can be counted on to fight, it to the death.

Mr. Butler hasn't the following he had when he and his following overthrew the Democratic party. A great many Republicans won't follow him. The thousands of ignorant negroes can't follow him. A great many Democrats, who temporarily forsook their own party to follow him, won't follow him. Butler's "old guard" are a few thousand men, principally in his home county of Sampson. He is hated and despised by all Democrats and is really esteemed by only a fraction of the Republican vote. If today doesn't mark his final retreat from North Carolina politics, the voters of the State will not have done their duty.

DEFENSE OF CLIMATE

In Weather As In Beautiful Woman Variability One of Chief Virtues.

G. K. Chesterton, in the London News. I suppose that, taking this summer as a whole, people will not call this an appropriate time for praising the English climate. But for my part I will praise the English climate till I die—even if I die of the English climate. There is no weather so good as English weather. Nay, in a sense, there is no weather at all anywhere except in England. In France you have much sun and some rain; in Italy you have hot winds and cold winds; in Scotland and Ireland you have rain, either thick or thin; in America you have horrible heat and cold, and in the tropics you have sunstrokes varied by thunderbolts. But all these you have on a broad and brutal scale and you settle down into contentment or despair. Only in our romantic country do you have the romantic thing called weather; beautiful and changeable as a woman. The great English landscape painters (neglected now like everything that is English) have this salient distinction—that the weather is not the atmosphere of their pictures; it is the subject of their pictures. They paint portraits of the weather. The weather sat to Constable; the weather posed for Turner, and the deuce of a pose it was. This is not really so in the greatest of their Continental models of rivals, Poussin or Claude paints ancient cities or perfect Arcadian shepherds through a clear medium of the climate. But in the English painters the climate is the hero; in the case of Turner a swaggering and fighting hero, melodramatic, but magnificent. The tall and terrible protagonist, robed in rain, thunder and sunlight, fills the whole canvas and the whole foreground. I admit the superiority of English weather and weather painting. Why, the French have not even got a word for weather, and you must ask for the weather in French as if you were asking the time in English.

Then variety of climate should always go with stability of abode. The weather in the desert is monotonous, and as a natural consequence the Arabs wander about, hoping to find it different somewhere. But an Englishman's house is not only his castle, it is his fairy castle. Clouds and colors or varied dawns and eves are perpetually changing it from clay to gold or from gold to ivory. There is a line of woodland beyond one corner of my garden which is different on every one of 365 days. Sometimes it seems as close as a hedge and sometimes as distant as an evening cloud. The same principle (by the way) applies to the difficult problem of wives. Variability is one of the virtues of a woman. It obviates the crude requirement of polygamy. If you have one good wife you are sure to have a spiritual harem. Now among the heresies that are spoken in this matter is the habit of calling a gray day a "colorless" day. Gray is a color and can be a very powerful and pleasing color. There is also a style of speaking about "one gray day just like another." You might as well talk about one green tree just like another. A gray, clouded sky is, indeed, an obstacle between us and the sun; so is a green tree for that matter. But the gray umbrellas, as much as the green, differ from each other in drift and shape, in tint and tilt. One day may be gray like steel and another gray like dove's plumage; one may seem gray like the front of death and another gray like the smoke of substantial kitchens. No things could seem further apart than the doubt of gray and the decision of scarlet. Yet gray and red can mingle, as they do in the morning clouds.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

MISS ECKERT COMING

Field Secretary of World-Wide Philathea Union To Be Here On Nov. 22.

Prepared For The Telegram.

About twenty of the City Philathea Union officers and class presidents assembled in very enthusiastic meeting at the Y. W. C. A. Saturday evening to make plans for a big Philathea rally Tuesday evening, November 22nd. The feature of this occasion will be an address by Miss Daisy Eckert, the eloquent field secretary of the World-Wide Philathea Union, whose visit to Greensboro fills the hearts of all the Philatheas with joyful anticipation. Miss Eckert is making a tour of the South and has already begun to fill her engagements in North Carolina. She is a young woman of attractive personality, consecrated purpose and is thoroughly conversant with the needs of young women in our Bible classes.

Miss Vallie Sanders, the newly elected president of the City Philathea Union, presided at this meeting. The young women unanimously voted to invite the Baracas of the city to be present for the rally, as well as for a reception in honor of Miss Eckert and the Baracas, which will follow the program.

All the Philatheas and Baracas will be expected to wear the Philathea colors, light blue and white, and to come "looking their best."

There are 22 Philathea classes in Greensboro and about the same number of Baracas, and there is every reason to believe that this occasion will mean much for their advancement. The ministers, Sunday school superintendents and teachers will be cordially welcomed.

Another Great Song Hit.

The theatrical season is now open in full force in New York, and musical comedy is this year the favorite with the public. Sam Bernard's show, "The Man from Milwaukee," now at Shubert's Casino, is beyond doubt the best thing in town, and the New York Sunday World has secured the song hit of the show, "If You Were There with Me," which will be given free, words and music complete, with next Sunday's World.

HIGH SCHOOL VS. U. N. C. FRESHMEN

This Will Be the Hardest Game of the Season for the "Highs"—So They Are Practicing Vigorously—Twice the High School Has Defeated the U. N. C. Freshmen.

In anticipation of their hardest game on the gridiron of this season the Greensboro High School football team is undergoing a hard week's practice. Saturday afternoon they will meet the U. N. C. Freshman team at Cone Park at 3:30.

Several reasons go to show that the game will be one of the fiercest seen here for many a day. The Freshman team is composed of boys who are a year ahead of High School teams in both age and weight. And again they usually have great advantages over their younger opponents in coaching and training, as they have a paid professional to expound the mysteries of the game to them.

The N. C. Freshmen and the local High School teams are great rivals. They have met on the gridiron twice and the younger High School boys have been twice gloriously victorious over their heavier opponents. In 1907 the Freshmen were defeated at Cone Park by a score of 9 to 5 in the hardest fought game ever witnessed here.

Last November the local boys returned the visit and on their opponents' grounds captured the game by a score of 6 to 0.

Accordingly, the Freshmen will come here with "blood in their eyes" and a grim determination to overcome old defeats by a great victory. But the High School team is the heaviest in its history and it is a safe bet, that, under the supervision of Mr. S. Clay Williams, the team has been trained well nigh to perfection.

Realizing that, in the hardest game of the season, the team must be well supported, the Athletic Association of the High School yesterday held an enthusiastic meeting. In his talk Mr. A. H. King urged the students to support the team in a body, ending by declaring that "this year's eleven is the best that has ever represented us." The High School Rooters' Club will be organized tomorrow in a mass meeting and many preparations are being made to royally entertain the Freshmen and handily defeat them.

New Council Junior Order.

Pomona Council, No. 345, Junior Order United American Mechanics was instituted at Pomona Friday night. District Deputy Grand Councillor J. W. Sechrest, of High Point, assisted by members from the High Point and Greensboro councils, instituted the council. The prospects for a flourishing council at Pomona are bright. The charter membership is 28.

Brooks At Burlington.

Mr. A. L. Brooks, accompanied by Mr. W. I. Underwood, went to Burlington yesterday, where he spoke last night. Mr. Brooks is an able campaigner and was given a rousing reception last night.

ALL DEMOCRATS ARE

URGED TO VOTE TODAY

"Your Country Demands Your Vote" Says Congressional Chairman Cooke. Congressional Chairman A. Wayland Cooke last night issued the following: To the Democrats of Guilford County:

Today the campaign comes to a close. Whether it shall end with a blaze of glory and a magnificent victory which shall make glad the hearts of all true Democrats, or whether we shall win by an uncomfortable majority rests with the voters of the district today.

Your country demands your vote. Good government and your duty to yourselves, your homes and your fire-sides, demands that you vote today. Elections are not won altogether by enthusiasm and shouting, but are won by ballots, and unless you vote today you are taking no part in saving this district to the Democratic party. It takes votes to redeem the district.

Let me urge upon you that you vote early. See your friends, your neighbors, and those with whom you have influence and ask them to vote the Democratic ticket. Vote the straight Democratic ticket today. Do not split it. Do not trade.

I congratulate you that the indications are that we shall carry this district by a large majority. The Taft brand of prosperity has proven an utter failure. The carpenters, masons, mill operatives, mechanics and others who toil know that the last two years have been anything but prosperous, and are not willing to vote for a party that levies a tax on them for the benefit of a few men, but will stand by the party which believes in according to every man an equal chance in the battle of life. Vote for the party which gives your boy an equal opportunity. The cry of despair has gone up from the women and children all over this land on account of the results of the Republican tariff. Vote the ticket which believes in you. Which puts men above money, and your children above bricks, mortar and stone.

Go to the polls early and stay late. Do your level best. Let us win by a majority which shall send such dismay into the Republicans of the Fifth district that they will not recover from it in a generation.

Y. W. C. A. To Hold Annual Fall Reception. Next Friday evening, Nov. 11, at 8 o'clock, the Young Women's Christian Association will hold its annual fall reception at the association rooms, 118 1-2 North Elm street. The social committee is arranging some very entertaining features, and an outline of the winter's work will be presented, and those who wish will be given opportunity to register for the classes and clubs soon to be organized. All the women and girls of the city are most cordially invited to spend the evening at the Y. W. C. A. rooms.

BIG DAMAGE SUIT.

Southern Railway Asked to Pay Sum of $40,000 Because of Death of A. P. Cone. Mr. L. J. Brandt, administrator of the late A. P. Cone, who was killed in the wreck at Reedy Fork last December, yesterday instituted suit against the Southern Railway Company to recover damages in the sum of $40,000. Mr. Cone at the time of his death was division superintendent of the Southern with headquarters at Richmond. Summons was issued on the Southern yesterday.

It is rumored that the Southern has offered to compromise the case by paying to the administrator of Mr. Cone's estate $10,000, but this was refused. Mr. A. L. Brooks is attorney for the administrator.

The Chrysanthemum Show. The Chrysanthemum show begins Thursday morning and the interest being taken in this annual event is most gratifying to the ladies. The fancy work will be received tomorrow afternoon between the hours of 2 and 5:30 o'clock and all ladies who wish to enter articles for the prizes are asked to bring them to the hall in the rear of the Public Service Company between those hours. The ladies will serve lunches Thursday and Friday and the patronage of the public is earnestly solicited.

FOR A MILLIONAIRES' CLUB

Mrs. Elliott F. Shepard's Former Place on Hudson To Be Leased.

New York, Nov. 7.—A country club at Scarborough-on-the-Hudson, which will surpass anything of the kind in the world, is now being organized, and next summer will likely see it a reality. A limited and select membership—very exclusive—will include few men whose fortunes are not counted in seven or more figures. The club has made arrangements with Robert Mather, of the Westinghouse Company, to lease the beautiful Woodlea estate, which he recently purchased from Mrs. Elliott F. Shepard.

The Woodlea place adjoins the 3,000-acre country estate of William Rockefeller and commands an excellent view of one of the most picturesque points on the Hudson. The mansion cost more than $2,000,000. It contains 73 rooms, with a dining room on the main floor 60 feet long by 35 feet wide. The large stable and garage on the place will accommodate more than 100 automobiles. The house is lavishly furnished and contains many art treasures from the Old World.

In the preliminary organization of the club Frederick W. Whitridge, receiver of the Third Avenue Street Railway Company, was elected chairman of the committee. Franklin A. Plummer, of the banking firm of William C. Sheldon & Co., of 66 Cedar street, is secretary.

Many improvements are planned by the club promoters, especially in the matter of laying out the grounds. The Woodlea estate comprises more than 500 acres, most of which can be seen from the beautiful Italian garden in the rear of the house. Many prominent men own country places—near by, among them Frank A. Vanderbilt, of the National City Bank; Theodore Douglas, James Speyer, the banker; W. W. Fuller, of the American Tobacco Company; Walter Law and V. Everitt Macy.

To Attend General Grand Chapter.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Clymer left yesterday for Jacksonville, Fla., to attend the sessions of the General Grand Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, which will be held this week. Mr. Clymer will represent the Grand Chapter of North Carolina and will present the interests of the North Carolina Masonic and Eastern Star Home, which will be erected in Greensboro. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Clymer will stop over in Atlanta to visit their son, Mr. Hugh Clymer.

Is This a Good Time to Buy Property?

We are often asked this question. Is this a good time to buy property. Or, is this a good time to sell property. Our reply invariably is this: The time to buy is when the other fellow wants to sell, or, the time to sell is when the other wants to buy.

On Thursday of this week the other fellow wants to sell; in fact has to sell for a dividend. So we unhesitatingly say—this is the time to buy—and too, this is a particularly good time to buy, as business is improving in all lines, and real estate will surely be higher and in greater demand.

Attend the auction sale of the "Crutchfield property" Thursday, Nov. 10, 2 p. m. and buy one or more of the houses and lots and our word for it, you will make money on it.

Odd Prices for Shoes

"You certainly have funny prices on your shoes," said one of our customers the other day when we showed him a pair of our old-fashioned plain toe calf skin shoes marked to sell at $3.25. Some of our footwear is sold at prices just a little "uncommon"—that's a fact, but in every instance a careful comparison will show that the prices are uncommonly low. That three-twenty-five calf skin shoe, for instance, is not sold anywhere else at less than three-fifty, and many stores get four dollars for the same grade. When you find that our 90-cent, $1.10, and $1.35 children's shoes are quite generally sold for $1, $1.25 and $1.50 elsewhere, you come to like and appreciate our odd way of pricing them.

$2.10 for best quality men's home-made wholestock shoes is a funny price, but you know, if you have taken the trouble to look around, that they are quite generally sold at $2.25 or more by other stores. Every year we sell hundreds of pairs of men's and women's shoes at $2.25—another rather unusual price, and the men and women who buy and wear these $2.25 shoes will testify that they are just as good and look just as nice as the average $2.50 shoes sold in "exclusive" shoe stores.

Many ladies in this city who wear our Sherwood and La France shoes, sold at $2.50, $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00 will testify to their excellent fitting and wearing qualities, and our men's $3.50, $4.00 and $5.00 shoes are constantly growing in popularity.

You can find a good many lines of goods here that are somewhat neglected by other city stores these days; for instance, wool jeans and other woollen piece goods for suits and pants; goods for work shirts and dress shirts, knitting wool and knitting cotton, cotton batting for comforts, wool and cotton flannels, floor oil cloth, table oil cloth, etc. On our second floor, in addition to carpets, rugs, matting, window shades and lace curtains, we carry a big stock of blankets and comforts of many grades and kinds; also a nice line of trunks. Drop in and see how busy we are. Our friends tell us this is one of the best lighted and most comfortable stores in the city now.

Thacker & Brockmann

"He's All Right; He Has Money in the Bank"

How many times has each of us heard this or similar expression? If we go around much we hear it nearly every day. And yet so few of us really take it to heart.

If a young man gets into trouble, a bank account will pull him out. If he gets sick or injured it will pay the doctor's or druggist's bills. If he wants to buy a few shares of stock in the company for which he works, and thereby strengthen his position, he can do it. All these things, and a hundred more, can be done with a snug bank account—but one must SAVE in order to have that account.

Better start today and save your money. We pay interest at the rate of 4 per cent, and assure the absolute safety of every dollar deposited here.

Biology has Proved that Dandruff is Caused by a Germ.

Science is doing wonders these days in medicine as well as in mechanics. Since Adam lived, the human race has been troubled with dandruff, for which no hair preparation has heretofore proved a successful cure until Nowbro's Herpicide was put on the market. It is a scientific preparation that kills the germ that makes dandruff or scurf by digging into the scalp to get at the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality, causing itching scalp, falling hair, and finally baldness. Without dandruff hair must grow luxuriantly. It is the only destroyer of dandruff. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

ALL MY PIMPLES GONE

Girl Tells How a Blotchy Skin Was Cleansed By a Simple Wash.

"I was ashamed of my face," writes Miss Minnie Pickard of Altamahaw, N. C. "It was all full of pimples and scars, but after using D. D. D. Prescription I can say that now there is no sign of that Eczema, and that was three years ago."

D. D. D. has become so famous as a cure and instant relief in Eczema and all other serious skin diseases, that its value is sometimes overlooked in clearing up rash, pimples, blackheads, and all other minor forms of skin impurities.

The fact is, that while D. D. D. is so penetrating that it strikes to the very root of Eczema or any other serious trouble, the soothing Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol and other ingredients are so carefully compounded there is no wash for the skin made that can compare with this great household remedy for every kind of skin trouble.

D. D. D. is pleasant to use, perfectly harmless to the most delicate skin, and absolutely reliable. A 25-cent bottle will give you positive proof of the wonderful effectiveness of this great remedy.

Wise Men of Gotham.

A "wise man of Gotham" is a fool, but the phrase arose through the real wisdom of the people that lived in the English town of Gotham. The story goes that King John of England once visited the town with the intention of seeing a castle that he thought of taking for himself. But the Gothamites did not care for the nearness of royalty and the expense they would be put to if the king should have a house there, and so they cooked up a scheme to drive him away. When the king arrived with his company of followers and rode through the town he saw all the inhabitants of Gotham going through the most foolish of tasks, each person with a silly smile on his face. The king was disgusted with them. He would not live among crazy people, and so he rode on through the town and did not stop for the castle. Then the wise men of Gotham, still smiling, but not in a silly fashion, told one another that there were more fools that passed through Gotham than remain in it.

Not What He Seemed.

Lieutenant General J. M. Grierson tells an amusing story of some maneuvers in which he took part. Only a small body of troops were being actually employed, and "skeleton forces" were the rule—in other words, small bodies of men represented whole divisions. General Grierson with his staff was riding along a lane when he suddenly came upon one of the enemy's pickets sitting calmly by the roadside. Quickly the general rode up to him and said:

"You are my prisoner; you had better surrender."

The man grinned and pointed to a flag beside him.

"Beg pardon, sir," he said, "but I am a brigade of infantry, so you are all my prisoners."—London Mail.

Christians in Old Rome.

Religious persecution as such was unknown under the Romans. The Christians were regarded as seditious. In denying the divinity of the Caesars and the Roman gods they were guilty of high treason in Roman eyes and were accordingly punished. But their punishment had no religious significance whatever. The Christians were persecuted not because they were Christians, but because, in the opinion of the authorities, they were disturbers of the peace and safety of the state. Religious persecution was a thought that never entered the Roman mind.—New York American.

Wounds of the Heart.

In wounds of the heart itself the escape of blood is never in large quantity, and the lethal consequences are due to the fact that the escape of blood from within its cavity or cavities into the surrounding sac of the pericardium mechanically interrupts the alternate contraction and expansion by which its pumping action is maintained. Accordingly the results of the wound of the heart are usually identical with those of gradual suffocation.

Cutting.

A Scotch lawyer was well reproved when, seated by a lady fully aware of her own plain looks, having bowed to his hostess in giving the toast, "Honored Men and Bonnie Lassies," she rejoined, raising her own glass, "We may both drink that toast, since it refers to neither of us."

Similar Tastes.

Belle—But do you think you and he are suited to each other? Nell—Oh, perfectly! Our tastes are quite similar. I don't care very much for him, and he doesn't care very much for me. —Paris Figure.

Willing to Pass.

"How do you like the new oatmeal soap?" inquired the barber. "Seems nourishing," replied the customer, "but I've had my breakfast."—Washington Herald.

The Long Arm.

Jenny—I consider the fellow was quite impudent. He put his arm round me twice. Rose—Did he? What a long arm he must have!

We should not be too niggardly in our praise, for men will do more to support a character than to raise one. —Colton.

A Household Medicine.

To be really valuable must show equally good results from each member of the family using it. Foley's Honey and Tar does just this. Whether for children or grown persons Foley's Honey and Tar is best and safest for all coughs and colds. Howard Gardner.

Leigh Hunt's Grave.

In the serene silence of Kensal Green cemetery, London, Leigh Hunt's body lies at rest. A visitor, reaching over the iron fence to part the fragrant shrubs that shadow the tombstone, reads these words:

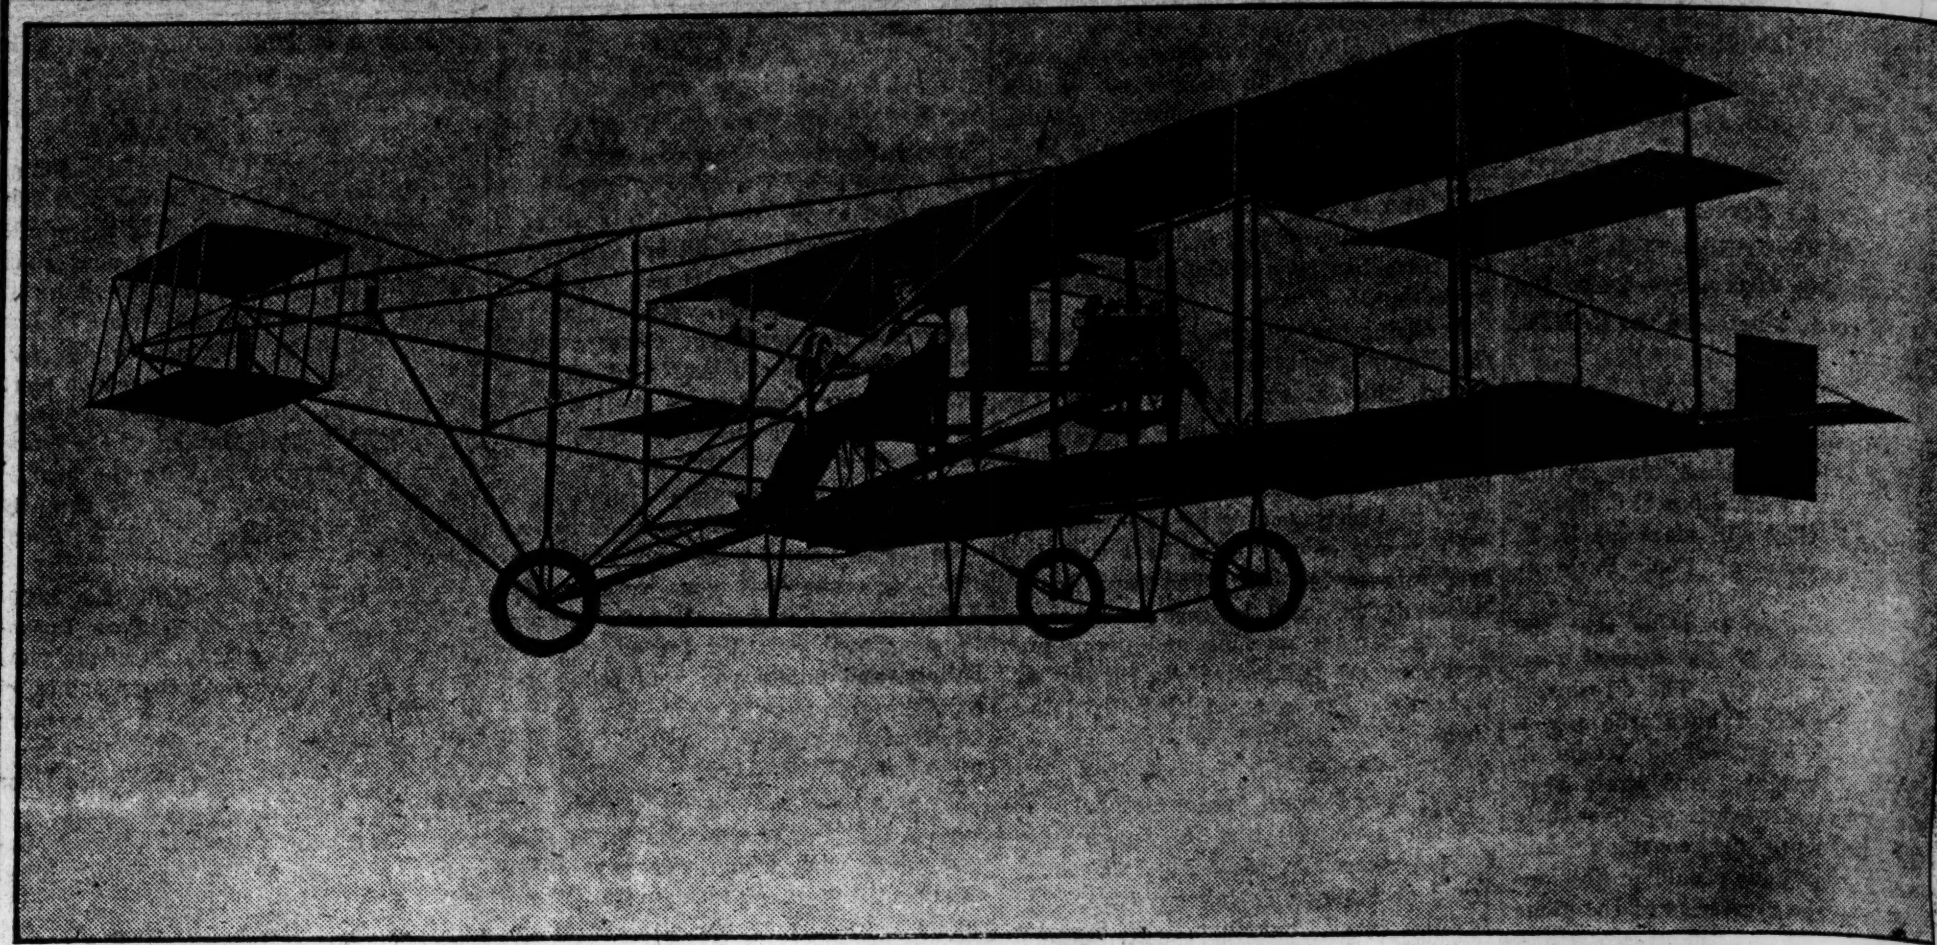

"Write me as one who loves his fellow men."

It was his own cheerful philosophy of life that Leigh Hunt expressed through the lips of his Abou Ben Adhem, and the sentiment is very touching come upon in this way.

The kidneys need help. They're overworked—can't get the poison filtered out of the blood. They're getting worse every minute. Will you help them?

Doan's Kidney Pills have brought thousands of kidney sufferers back from the verge of despair.

Will cure any form of kidney trouble. Mrs. Alice Hanes, 614 Liberty Street, Winston-Salem, N. C., says: "Some years ago I suffered a great deal from kidney trouble. I had severe pains across the small of my back, accompanied by dull, miserable headaches and the kidney secretions were also irregular in passage, plainly denoting that my kidneys were at fault. When I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills, I was so much impressed with the good reports concerning them that I procured a box and began their use. They helped me at once and I am now almost entirely free from the pain in my back. My kidneys are also much stronger and my condition has improved in every way."

REVIVAL OF HOBBLE SKIRT.

"Saucer" Hat Stirs London Judge to Anger.

London News.

While the "hobble skirt" has been the target of much criticism, the "saucer hat" is the latest article of feminine apparel to actually come into contact with the law. A woman stenographer appeared as a witness in a case in the Bloomsbury County Court, wearing headgear of this type, of more than ordinary size, the brim of which almost concealed her face.

"Tip your hat back, please," commanded Judge Bacon, who occupied the bench, and the young woman raised the brim until her nose was revealed.

"That won't do," protested the Judge. "I cannot see your eyes, and the eyes are the 'windows of the soul' in a case like this."

"Will that do?" asked the witness, as she gave the hat another nudge.

"No," returned the Judge. "It will not. There is a dark shadow across your features, and your eyes are hidden."

"I cannot tip it back any further," insisted the young woman.

"I think you are a most obstinate young woman," asserted Judge Bacon.

"You will have to tip it back further."

"Then I shall take it off," declared the witness.

"No, you will not," ruled the Court. I will not have a woman in court with her head bare."

The young woman made another effort. She pulled out very slowly several long pins, one by one.

"Do not lose your temper," cautioned Judge Bacon. "I hope you will not spoil the shape of the hat, but really headgear of that type ought to be prohibited in court."

At last the hat was tilted sufficiently to reveal the girl's eyes, and she then was permitted to give her testimony.

Foley's Honey and Tar has been a household favorite for coughs, colds, and ailments of the throat, chest and lungs, contains no poisons. Sold by Howard Gardner.

There is nothing so sure as uncertainty.

The Unhumbled Valet.

The Duke of Cambridge was once about to visit Lord Stratford, who had been appointed ambassador to Turkey. At an early hour on the morning of his expected arrival the ambassador went, in slippers and dressing gown, to see if the rooms were in perfect order. He found that the duke's valet had arrived and was arranging his master's trunks and portmanteaus. Stratford gave some directions how they should be placed. The man left off working and stared at the intruder.

"I tell you what it is," he said. "I know how his royal highness likes to have his things arranged better than you do. So you just be off. Will you, old fellow?"

Lord Stratford left in a towering passion. Calling one of his attaches, he ordered him to go in and tell the man whom he had addressed in such language. The attaché returned with twinkling eyes.

"What did you say?" asked the ambassador.

"I said to him, my lord, that the person he had ventured to address such language to was her majesty's representative to Turkey."

"Ah, quite right. And his answer?"

"He answered, my lord, that he never said you wasn't."—With Lord Stratford in the Crimean War.

It's one thing to count the cost, but quite another thing to pay it.

Each of the chief organs of the body is a link in the Chain of Life. A chain is no stronger than its weakest link, the body no stronger than its weakest organ. If there is weakness of stomach, liver or lungs, there is a weak link in the chain of life which may snap at any time. Often this so-called "weakness" is caused by lack of nutrition, the result of weakness or disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. Diseases and weaknesses of the stomach and its allied organs are cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. When the weak or diseased stomach is cured, diseases of other organs which seem remote from the stomach but which have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, are cured also.

The strong man has a strong stomach. Take the above recommended "Discovery" and you may have a strong stomach and a strong body.

Gardner's Drug Store

Jewelry Store Romance.
A wedding ring whose scratched and dulled surface bespoke years of hard service at washtub and dishpan lay on the jeweler's work table.
"Why has it been laid up for repairs?" a visitor asked. "Has marriage proved a failure?"
"On the contrary, it has turned out a great success, and the ring has been brought back to bear witness," said the jeweler. "See this new inscription. 'Ten years of fidelity and love.' That sounds pretty good, doesn't it? No failure there. Five or ten years from now, if they are both alive, somebody will probably add another postscript, and so on at regular intervals to the end of the chapter. Jewelers meet more of these little romances than the unsentimental person would dream of."—New York Sun.

No Right to Live.
Beggars—Won't you give me some money, professor? My money is all gone, and I can't live.
Professor—How old are you?
Beggars—Forty years, sir.
Professor—Forty years! Don't you know that according to the latest mortality tables the average age of the male population of Europe reaches only thirty-four years and five months? Statistically you have no right to live any longer anyway!—Meggendorfer Blatte.

Two Faults.
"You hunt too much," said Louis XV. to the archbishop of Narbonne. "How can you prohibit your curates from hunting if you pass your life in setting them such an example?"
"Sire," said Dillon, "for my curates the chase is a fault; for myself it is the fault of my ancestors."

Politeness.
Politeness is a sort of guard which covers the rough edges of our character and prevents them from wounding others. We should never throw it off even in our conflicts with coarse people.

Capacity Diminishing.
Mrs. Guzzler—Aren't you ashamed to come home in this condition?
Mr. Guzzler—Mortified to death, my dear. I find my capacity isn't what it used to be.—Philadelphia Record.

Mirth is too often but melancholy in disguise.—Leigh Hunt.

Next Attraction In Lyceum Course.
The Parland-Newhall Company will appear here on the evening of Tuesday, Nov. 15, as the second attraction in the Greensboro Lyceum Course. This attraction will be one of the best of the entire course and will no doubt be greeted by a large audience.

In Naming Individuals

as guardians of minor children often great risks are incurred. The advantages of appointing a responsible corporation, such as the Greensboro Loan & Trust Company executor or guardian are apparent. It is always present by its authorized agents and officers ready to transact any business of that character entrusted to it, and having its business thoroughly systematized, it can execute such trusts with much greater facility, and at no greater expense than would be entailed for the like services of an individual. And then, if it happens that the children as they approach their legal age make demands, an individual is much more liable to grant concessions which should not be granted, than a strict corporation acting under not only the supervision of the Court but stringent state laws as well. Talk this over with us.

J. W. FRY, President.

W. E. ALLEN, Treasurer.

A Lucky Man

HOW often do we hear people say: "He is lucky." This is one of the popular errors which has gained a considerable foothold. The lucky man is the man who works diligently and uses careful judgment in handling his money. The richest men in the world were, strange to say, almost the poorest boys. There is no limit to what can be done in accumulating a substantial fortune if prudence and diligence are exercised.
